Friday 25th

More Competitions, No Borders

/4pm - 6pm

Italian Identities

Presentation of the two Contests launched by AIAC to promote young Italian talents, architects and critics: Young Italian Architects (lectures of the 10 finalists) and Young Critics (lectures of the 10 finalists)

by AIAC

coordinated by Diego Barbarelli, Marco Maria Sambo and Lpp

greetings by Vicky Syriopoulou - Oikos

/6pm - 6:45pm

No borders

Presentation of the book on the Border Wall and its connections to architecture - as an example of work architects will not do, the negative affects it has on construction, and the call to a profession to take moral positions on issues facing society.

by Architecture Lobby (introduction by Bill Menking and Peggy Deamer)

/6:45pm - 7pm

IN-Contest, competitions making culture

A survey conducted during the Milan Design Week 2017 that presents how the good practice of contests can positively affect at the same time architects, brands, municipalities, administrations, cultural entities and, of course, people.

by Superficial Studio

/7pm - 8:30pm

Identities Vs Diversities in Competitions

Architectuur Lokaal, A10 new European architecture Cooperative and Project Compass will present the latest developments in Competition Culture in Europe, a project that started in 2017. This will be the occasion to introduce a vocabulary and stories on competitions in Italy, Finland, The Netherlands, France and the UK.
